(b) if so, whether some employees have also written to the departments in this regard;

(c) if so, the details thereof and the action taken by the Government thereon;

(d) rules and regulations/guidelines laid down in this regard;

(e) whether shareholders have also demanded that their representative should also be nominated to represent in the managing body of shareholders; and

(f) if so, the details thereof and the reaction of the Government thereto?

Answer

MINISTER OF TOURISM AND CULTURE (SHRI ANANTHKUMAR)

(a), (b) and (c): The shareholder employees of ITDC may write about theirgrievances/complaints to the ITDC management or any other concerned authorities. ITDC management has, however, not received any grievance/complaint aboutfunctioning of ITDC from any shareholder employee.

(d): A shareholder can approach different authorities i.e. Company Law Board, Central Government, Court, Company Management etc. for redressal of his grievance/complaint under various provisions of the Companies Act.

(e) and (f): So far no such demand has been received by ITDC management.
